City Hall Council Chambers

1001 Bridge St. Vernonia OR 97064

Vernonia City Council Rules and Procedures

Section 5. Work Sessions

Work sessions of the Council may be held prior to regular session or on any other date as agreed to by a majority of the Council. Work sessions must be held in accordance with the Public Meetings Laws. The Mayor, two Council members or the City Administrator may call a work session. Work sessions are informal meetings to review upcoming issues, receive special reports, conduct goal setting or hold special training sessions. No vote or final action is taken while in a work session; and no audience participation is allowed unless permitted by the consent of a majority of the Council present.

Purpose of the Meeting:

- A. Review Council Rules and Procedures
- B. Review Ordinance 880 City Committees and Prescribing the General Powers and Duties
- C. Public Works Committee Roles for the WWTP Project

City Council does not intend to permit public participation by public testimony or comment during the general work session but reserves the right to initiate limited public participation if deemed appropriate to inform the Council on the issues before them.
