

Vernonia Flood Stories

Wednesday, October 26, 6 pm

Vernonia Public Library

History, images, and stories from the floods of 1996, 2007, and 2015

An opportunity to gather together to share some of the positive stories about Vernonia and its resilience under adversity. A few storytellers have been invited and audience stories will be encouraged. For people new to the community as well as people who have experienced the floods. Program is intended to be interactive and upbeat, even in difficult times there is humor and caring. Emceed by Tobie Finzel from the Vernonia Pioneer Museum. For questions, contact the library (503) 429-1818 or library@vernonia-or.gov.
